

Dear colleagues,

I have the pleasure in inviting you to participate in the presentation of the results of the quantitative research conducted within the framework of "Increasing the Role of the Civil Society in Political processes of Armenia" project which will take place on November 25 2015 at 11:00 at "Picasso" hall of the "Congress" hotel.

The project is implemented by Advanced Public Research Group (APR Group) with the financial support by European Endowment for Democracy.

The goal of the research is to identify the attitude of the population of Armenia towards Constitutional reforms, as well as a number of other processes in Armenia. The objectives of the research is to clarify to what extent the Armenia population is aware of the content of the current Constitution and proposed amendments, as well as the attitude towards and expectations from Constitutional reforms. The research helped also identify issues such as the trust in the referendum, readiness to vote etc.

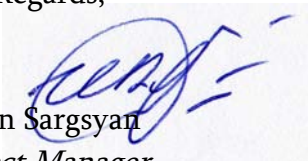

The expected participants of the event are representatives of the RA Committee on Constitutional Reforms, National Assembly, Government, political parties, local and international organizations, as well as Mass Media.

Attached you can find the presentation agenda. Please confirm your participation via phone (00 374 91 300 748/ 00 374 98 300 948) or e-mail (aprgroup@gmail.com).

The working language of the event is Armenian.

Looking forward to your participation.

Best Regards,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Ruben Sargsyan', is written over a light blue rectangular background.

Ruben Sargsyan
Project Manager

Chairman of "Advanced Public Research Group" (APR Group)